The Red Fox
Michael Alfano | Medium: Bronze Sculpture

Michael Alfano is known for creating figurative and surrealistic sculpture to convey philosophical ideas and abstract concepts from literal models.

The Bronze Bears
Fiberglass Farm | Medium: Fiberglass Sculpture

Meet Saco and Tuck! They are the perfect photo op with friends and family. Our beloved bronze bears came to us in 2015.

Caryatid
Melanie Zibit | Medium: Marble Sculpture

Carved from a six-foot-high block of marble like the Greek columns called "Caryatids," the sculpture is intended to stand watch over the marketplace.

Twisters
Lyman Whitaker | Medium: Copper, steel & stainless steel.

A world-renowned pioneer in kinetic art, collectors of Lyman's art include Sea World, the Dallas Arboretum and Disney World.

This Is Your Day Wings
Pandr Design Co | Medium: Painted Mural

Snap a pic in front of this giant wings mural next to Banana Republic and post on Instagram using #seenatsettlers.

Waterfall in the Woods
Kristen Pobatschnig | Medium:

Kristen Pobatschnig's three-part abstract mural is inspired by the Sabbaday Falls, Arethusa Falls and Champney Falls, all found in the White Mountain National Forest.

Mt. Washington from Jackson
Harry Lichtman | Medium: Photograph

New Hampshire photographer Harry Lichtman was commissioned by Settlers Green to capture this iconic panoramic view of Mt. Washington.

NH Heritage
Ernie Brown | Medium: Painted Mural (replica)

This is a replica of a mural completed in 1999. It showcases 300 years of New Hampshire history through five panels beginning with the Native Americans and ending at the 2000 election.

Star Dancers
Dale Rogers | Medium: Cor-Ten Steel, Sculpture

Welded with weathering steel, this artist's work may seem familiar as many know the Big Dog visible from Exit 48 on Route 495 South in Massachusetts.

10
Heart of the Cosmic
Kristen Pobatschnig | Medium: Painted Mural

Created to uplift and inspire, and capture movement, light and the Natural World, it is inspired by elements of Nature and the Cosmic.

13
Can We Talk?
Rebecca Klementovich | Medium: Painted Mural

Using house paint and canvas, the murals depict two semi-abstract faces in an enchanting moment of communication right before a kiss.

11
American Dog
Dale Rogers | Medium: Cor-Ten Steel, Sculpture

Standing at 12 feet tall, the American Dog is artist Dale Rogers' most iconic sculpture. Many New Englanders will recognize it from a 26-foot tall version at Exit 48 on Route 495 in Massachusetts.

Welcome to North Conway
Pandr Design Co | Medium: Painted Mural

Phoebe and Roxy of Pandr Design Co. have painted over 225 murals all across the United States.

12
Granite Mother
Antoinette Prien Schultze | Medium: Granite Sculpture

The largest featured sculpture in our collection, standing at nine feet tall and made of granite and inlaid colored cast glass.
